

Genoa and Savona take centre stage in 2023 World Cruises

13 January 2023

With the new year, MSC Cruises and Costa are back with epic Around-the-World cruises and reconfirm Genoa and Savona as embarkation ports for travel enthusiasts' most beloved sea voyages. On offer, a selection of World Tours featuring itineraries across five continents in 130 days.

MSC Magnifica and MSC Poesia set sail from Genoa on 5 January, with a combined total of 5000 guests onboard, on an exceptional voyage to over 50 destinations across 30 countries. Genoa's strategic role as global cruise capital gathers momentum as the Ligurian city is the first port worldwide to host the departure of two Around-the-World cruises on the same day.

Savona's Palacrociere Terminal accommodated the Costa Deliziosa on 11 January, with over 2000 guests from 40 different countries on board, who will have the opportunity to explore 52 destinations across 4 continents in 128 days.
