

Lithuanian Ambassador Slepavicius visits the Ports of Genoa

25 June 2019

The Ambassador of Lithuania to Italy, Ricardas Slepavicius, met with the President of the Western Ligurian Sea Port Authority, Paolo Emilio Signorini, on his first official visit to Genoa, at Palazzo San Giorgio.

17 June 2019 - Accompanied by the Honorary Consul of the Republic of Lithuania, Massimo Manuelli, the Ambassador's meeting with the Genoa-Savona-Vado Ligure Port Authority President focused on potential forms of collaboration with the Port Authority of Klaipeda, the only port to operate in Lithuania, and addressed the possibility of promoting bilateral cooperation agreements.