

US ambassador Eisenberg visits the Ports of Genoa

29 April 2019

26 April 2019 - The discussions held were highly productive and stimulating as Ambassador Eisenberg was also able to draw on his past invaluable experience as former Chairman of the Port Authority of New York & New Jersey. During his visit, the US Ambassador underlined the importance of keeping the focus on economic sustainability and the principles of a free market economy in world trade.